A Look at Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the NAIA No. 18 Indiana Wesleyan University Wildcats in non-conference action tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

Cedarville is 4-0 on the year after defeating Carlow 4-0 this past Saturday afternoon in Pittsburgh, PA. The Wildcats are 2-1 on the year with victories over Campbellsville and Asbury. IWU lost 4-1 to visiting NAIA #4 Lindsey Wilson on Monday, Sept. 1. Indiana Wesleyan is the defending NCCAA national champion.

The Lady Jackets are off to the best start in their 12-year history with four wins to start the season. Tonight's contest will be one of the toughest tests Cedarville will face in 2008.

Forwards Kelly Wise and Kelsey Watkins pace the Lady Jackets with four goals each. Wise, a junior from Mohnton, PA and the latest AMC Player of the Week, was the squad's second-leading scorer in 2007. Watkins, a freshman from Parkersburg, WV, has adjusted quickly to the collegiate game and added a scoring boost for the Jackets.

Kelly Wise

Rookie Becky Burton has added two goals for Cedarville to rank second on the team in scoring. Classmate Sarah Brownfield paces CU with two assists.

Goalkeeper Amber Laing, a senior from Warminster, PA, has suffered a recent injury that will keep her out of the lineup for several weeks. Freshman Jill Carroll will be called upon to fill in at the goalie position.

Cedarville has outscored opponents by a 13-3 margin including two shutouts in the first four matches of the year. The Lady Jackets hold a 40-17 advantage in shots on goal.

Indiana Wesleyan is led on the offensive attack by Megan Marshall. The sophomore defender has five goals and an assist in the first three contests of the 2008 campaign. She was honored as the NCCAA Player of the Week for the week ending August 31.

Megan Marshall

Brittany Smith, a second-year midfielder has found the net four times along with two assists for 10 points.

IWU's Catherine Turner, a junior midfielder, leads the squad with three assists.

Senior Melissa Gingerich and rookie Kristin Perrine have both seen action in the nets for Indiana Wesleyan this fall.

IWU leads the all-time series with the Lady Jackets by a 9-0-1 margin including a 33-5 advantage in goals scored. The Wildcats posted a season-opening 8-0 verdict over Cedarville last August 28 in Marion, Indiana.

Last Time Out

CU stays undefeated; beats Carlow

Kelly Wise netted two scores and Cedarville opened American Mid-East Conference play with a 4-1 win at Carlow on Saturday. It's the first time in school history that the Lady Jackets have won their first four matches of the season.

Wise found the goal on a direct kick in the 37th minute and it was 1-0 at the intermission. Hannah Wailes scored unassisted in the 53rd minute for her first goal of the year. Wise tallied her fourth goal, also unassisted, in the 64th minute while Kelsey Watkins matched her for the team lead with her fourth score six minutes later. Alison Scharold had the assist.

Carlow, 0-3 overall and 0-1 AMC, averted the shutout in the 80th minute. Jill Carroll made her collegiate debut in goal and registered five saves.
